

Go Bold Dream Big Finish Well

August 16, 2011

Dear Friend,

Every day for the past week, I have been reading II Timothy Chapter 4. Paul was writing from prison. His trial was over, the verdict had been read – he was ready. Yet, he could not rest. “Just one more word of instruction before I go,” he must have thought. “Bring me my papers and of course, the scriptures. They comfort me.”

Go Bold was his cry to Timothy, “Preach the word, be prepared in season and out of season; correct, rebuke, and encourage – with great patience and careful instruction.”

God has given each of us a story to tell. I couldn’t wait to pour my first cup of coffee and share mine with you this morning. I wanted to let you know that you are loved with an everlasting love.

Dream Big Go one step beyond yesterday. Paul took the message everywhere he went. We also must share our thoughts, our prayers and our Lord’s words of encouragement to thousands. Dream Big! I have a big dream – to finish the missionary home under construction by Christmas! I am praying that God will raise up plumbers, electricians, painters, volunteers and others to build this home. Every week, Siloam Missionary Homes has missionaries calling for a house, a place of comfort, rest and encouragement. In years to come, I can see hundreds, yes even thousands, passing through SMH, ready to Go Bold to reach the world with the Gospel. Can you help us Dream Big and pray that we can have this home finished by Christmas?

May God encourage you today, as He has me, to Go Bold, “Trust in the Lord with all your heart” to Dream Bigger than you ever have “For I know the plans I have for you, declares the Lord, plans to prosper you and not to harm you, plans to give you a future and a hope.” “Then you will call upon Me and come and pray to Me (the God of the Universe wants me to talk to Him) and I will listen!”

Finish Well “I have fought a good fight, I have finished the race.” We won’t write the ending of our life – someone else will. How will your story end? I look forward to hearing your story.
